

DREW DELLINGER: poetry for eco-justice

LOVE LETTER TO THE MILKY WAY

Insight and inspiration for a sustainable future

Sunday, March 28, 2010

1:30–3:30 pm • Minden

R.D.Lawrence Place,
in The Old Library, 176 Bobcaygeon Road

Tickets $20 at the door Reserve at 705.754.2427

Drew Dellinger is:

- Professor, writer, activist, performer
- Founder of Poets for Global Justice
- Inspired and inspiring speaker
- Author of the internationally acclaimed poetry collection, Love Letter to the Milky Way
- Luminary from the Awakening the Dreamer movement

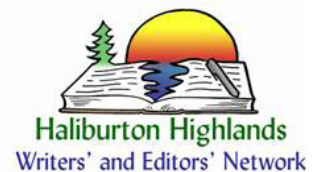

www.drewdellinger.org

Drew will address his creative process as well as the questions of the gathering.

“Drew Dellinger is a national treasure. His poems for global justice bring light to these leaden times, helping us to see and defend the beauty of our world. His spoken word performances are exquisite in their intelligence and artistry: Setting the political challenges we face within the grandeur of our unfolding universe, they ignite both our wonder and our will.”

– Joanna Macy, author of Coming Back to Life

R.D.Lawrence Place