

Sneh Chakraburty

Book Launch

Wednesday July 21 1-4pm

Join Sneh in a discussion about her books, dealing with Ayurveda, an Indian philosophy about the art of healing and prolonging life.

Also, experience firsthand the beautiful tradition of henna, as two artists will be standing by during the event to provide visitors with the tattoos!

Henna

Henna rituals start the day before the wedding by the bride-to-be's friends, who design intricate and happy patterns wishing the bride a flower-filled, beautiful, and peaceful married life - beyond what her fate lines say are destined. Henna is used for both decorations and for original symbolism.

For information go to www.mindenculturalcentre.com or call 705-286-2298 or rdlawrenceplace@mindenhills.ca
R.D. Lawrence Place is at 176 Bobcaygeon Rd., Minden